

Winter Retreat at Camp Jonah!

It's time for you to register for the Southwest Youth Group Winter Retreat! It'll be the weekend of January 13-16.

That's Martin Luther King weekend, and YES we'll stay through Monday again! We'll be going back to Camp Jonah - that cool camp in Trout Lake, WA.

This is the camp that was converted from an old school into a teen camp. It's one cool place! There should be a lot of snow, so bring some warm winter clothes. We'll be going innertubing and playing football in the snow!

This retreat will be a good chance for you to make some new friends and also grow closer to God!

So what will we do there? We'll play in the snow, go innertubing/snowmobiling, play pool and air hockey, play snow football, drink hot chocolate, play basketball, go "midnight caving", you can hang out with friends, singing with EnterPraise, classes taught by your peers,
